

Come, Holy Dove

to celebrate the dedication of the Holy Spirit window
by Joan Forsdyke at Rathfarnham Parish Church, Dublin 20th November 2011

words by Richard Wilton (1827-1903)
music by Anne-Marie O'Farrell (2011)

Optional descant for violin or flute:

Con moto  $\text{♩} = 72$

S.A.

1. Come, Ho - ly Dove, De - scend on si - lent pi - nion,
2. On wings of peace bring from that pre - cious al - tar
3. Spir - rit of grace, re - veal in me my Sa - viour,
4. Let that sweet sound to ho - ly deeds al - lure me,
5. Come, Ho - ly Dove, Guide me to that bright por - tal,

T.B.

Brood o'er my sin - ful soul with pa - tient love, Till all my
The blood which bids the storms of con - science cease, And blots out
That I may gaze up on his mir - rored face, Till I ref - With heav'nly ech - oes make my spi - rit bound, And of my Where I shall see the Sa - viour whom I love, And en - ter be - ing owns your mild do - mi - nion, Come, Ho - ly Dove.

all the debt of the de - faul - ter, Come, Ho - ly Dove.
lect it in my whole be - ha - viour, Come, Ho - ly Dove.
home in pa - ra - dise as - sure me, Come, Ho - ly Dove.
on the joys which are im - mor - tal, Come, Ho - ly Dove.